

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ROGER GONZALES,
Plaintiff,

v.

WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 13-cv-02447-SI

ORDER DIRECTING DEFENDANT
WELLS FARGO TO FILE SUR-REPLY
BY NOON ON MARCH 1, 2017

Plaintiff's motion to enforce the settlement agreement is scheduled for a hearing on March 3, 2017. Plaintiff did not provide a copy of the settlement agreement with his motion, nor does the motion specify how Wells Fargo allegedly breached the settlement agreement. Wells Fargo's opposition argues, inter alia, that plaintiff has failed to demonstrate any breach of the contract because of a failure of proof. In his reply papers, plaintiff states that Wells Fargo breached the settlement agreement by failing to forgive portions of his loan balance, for a total of $86,953.47. Plaintiff also filed a declaration in support of the reply brief which includes, inter alia, a copy of the settlement agreement and bank and loan statements.

The Court directs defendant to file a sur-reply by noon on March 1, 2017, addressing whether Wells Fargo has breached the settlement agreement by failing to forgive any portion of plaintiff's loan balance.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 23, 2017

SUSAN ILLSTON
United States District Judge